From HPMG Research Desk...

The Week That Was

June 30th to July 4th 2025.

It was an uninspiring week for benchmark Nifty as investors stayed on the sidelines despite Wall Street scaling new record highs.

Caution prevailed and was the preferred theme than usual indicating tariff concerns have eased - But not vanished.

That brings us to our call of the week which suggests the tug-of-war is likely to continue with bears having the upper-hand in the near term and in the longer term, we are distinctly cautiously optimistic.

Nifty (-0.69%, 25461) Sensex (-0.74%, 83433)

The benchmark Nifty found it hard and struggled to sustain its recent bullish momentum as anxiety prevailed on backdrop of investors being mindful of the risks as India and the US race to finalise a bilateral trade pact ahead of the July 9 deadline.

So, until Wednesday, July 9th Nifty bulls are likely to be reluctant and so will be Nifty bears.

So, until Wednesday, July 9th serious consolidation seen as the preferred theme.

Now, here are key themes in the week gone by:

- 1) At Wall Street, the S&P 500 and Nasdag Composite roared to reach their fresh 52-week highs.
- 2) A stronger-than-expected US jobs report buoyed investors' sentiments confirming a resilient American economy.
- 3) That said, the robust June jobs data actually dampens expectations for a Federal Reserve interest-rate cut in July.
- 4) US President Donald Trump's 'big, beautiful' tax-cut and spending bill passes Congress in big win for US President
- 5) FII selling: In the week gone by, the FIIs were net sellers to the tune of Rs. 6544.50 crores.
- 6) President Trump announced a trade deal that will tariff Vietnam at 20% instead of the 46% tariff from "Liberation Day" which is tariff, significantly lower than the 46% levy initially planned. The deal also sets a 40% tariff on goods transshipped through Vietnam, a measure aimed at curbing the practice of circumventing tariffs by routing Chinese goods through the country.

Long Story Short: The possibility of both a melt-up or a melt-down is quite high. Expect the tug-of-war to continue with bears having the upper hand in the near term.

The Week Ahead: The big question: Will India really benefit from any tariff deal with USA?

The India-US interim trade deal remains elusive with less than a week to go before the July 9 reciprocal tariff pause runs out. According to a government official, Indian negotiators returned Friday, adding that the negotiations are not contingent on any specific date and that both countries will sign a deal only if it is mutually beneficial.

Amidst this backdrop, expect volatility to be the hallmark for the week ahead.

Also, commanding attention outside of the equities market is the speculation that President Donald Trump could name a replacement for Federal Reserve Chair Jerome Powell sooner rather than later.

Focus will also be on the release of the FOMC minutes, as traders look for further clarity on the Fed's policy direction for the rest of the year. Fed Chair Powell has maintained a cautious, waitand-see stance.

Back at home, Q1 earnings season is gearing up with TCS officially setting afire the ceremonial starter's pistol of Q1 earnings. Of late, India's GDP growth is again turned towards north. Not only that, the inflation has also come down drastically as we are at a five or a six-year low. RBI is expected to deliver more rate cuts in 2025. Hence, net-net we may see improving numbers in Q1FY25 when compared to Q4 FY25 marginally.

Apart from earnings, the IPO market will remain hot as well where Travel Food Services IPO opens for subscription on July 7, 2025 and closes on July 9, 2025. The allotment for the Travel Food Services IPO is expected to be finalized on Thursday, July 10, 2025. Travel Food Services IPO will be listed on BSE, NSE with a tentative listing date fixed as Monday, July 14, 2025.

Technically, Nifty forms a small bearish candle on the weekly charts, indicating tough resistance to continue at recent highs at 25669 area.

Aggressive upside bullish targets still continue to be at Nifty's all-time-high at 26277.35 mark but that said, confirmation of strength only above Nifty 25700 mark.

Meanwhile, the biggest interweek support for Nifty will be at 25000 (low as on June 24th).

Long Story Short: Nifty's bullish constructive stance only above 25670 mark Until then caution should be the buzzword

Maximum Call OI is at 26000 followed by 25500 strike prices. 26000 mark is now Nifty's major resistance zone on closing basis. PP: Pivot Point : This is trigger point for weekly buy/sell based on the price range of the previous week.
R1: Resistance one : 1st Resistance over PP. R2 : Resistance two : 2nd Resistance over R1.
S1: Support one : 1st support after PP. S2 : Support Two : 2nd support after S1.

As per the tool, the trader should take BUY position just above PP and keep the stop loss of PP and the first target would be R1. If R1 is crossed then R2 becomes the next target with the stop loss at R1. Similarly if price goes below PP the trader should SELL and keep the PP as Stop loss and the first target would be S1.

If S1 is crossed then S2 becomes the next target with the stop loss at S1. This is a trading tool. The key to use of this tool is the use of STOP LOSS.
