The negative takeaway however is that revenue for the quarter dropped 14% to Rs 21,961 crore, compared to Rs 25,472 crore a year ago. Operating profit also weakened, with Ebitda falling 11% year-on-year to Rs 3,310 crore and a 49.5% year-on-year decline in consolidated net profit for the quarter ended June 2025, primarily due to lower trade volumes, volatility in index prices within its Integrated Resource Management (IRM) segment, and pressure on commercial mining. Adani Ports shares fell despite a decent Q1FY26 as denting sentiments were reports that Gautam Adani has stepped down as executive chairman. The expected sluggishness in the sector amidst US-India tariff also is likely to dent sentiments for the stock with the transport infrastructure sector also experiencing a drop. Adani Ports and Special Economic Zone Limited (APSEZ) is the largest commercial ports operator in India accounting for nearly one-fourth of the cargo movement in the country. Its presence across 13 domestic ports in seven maritime states of Gujarat, Maharashtra, Goa, Kerala, Andhra Pradesh, Tamil Nadu and Odisha presents the most widespread national footprint with deepened hinterland connectivity.

The port facilities are equipped with the latest cargo-handling infrastructure which is not only best-in-class, but also capable of handling the largest vessels calling at Indian shores. The ports are equipped to handle diverse cargos, from dry cargo, liquid cargo, crude to containers.

The Company's integrated services across three verticals, i.e. Ports, Logistics and SEZ, has enabled it to forge alliances with leading Indian businesses making APSEZ an undisputed leader in the Indian port sector.

Adani Ports shares fell despite a decent Q1FY26 as denting sentiments were reports that Gautam Adani has stepped down as executive chairman. Gautam Adani resigned from his position as executive chairman of the company and has been re-designated as non-executive chairman APSEZ. Manish Kejriwal has been appointed as additional director (Non-Executive, Independent) of the company.

The expected sluggishness in the sector amidst US-India tariff also is likely to dent sentiments for the stock with the transport infrastructure sector also experiencing a drop.

Meanwhile, Adani Ports registered a 6.5% jump in consolidated net profit at ₹3,314.59 crore for the first quarter of the financial year 2024-26 (FY26). Adani Ports had registered a profit of ₹3,112.83 crore in the year-ago period. The company's net profit rose 9.9% from ₹3,014.22 crore on a sequential basis.

The company's revenue for Q1 FY26 stood at ₹9,126.14 crore, rising 31.1% from ₹6,956.32 crore year-on-year (Y-o-Y). The revenue increased 7.5% from ₹8,488.44 crore during the March quarter.

The earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortisation (Ebitda) jumped 13% to ₹5,495 crore in Q1 FY26 from ₹4,848 crore during the same period last year.

Technical Outlook: The stock at the moment is witnessing massive bearish breakdown on the daily and weekly charts and that's on backdrop of one way down move since July 2025.

The stock price is also below its intermediate June 2025 low at 1331 mark. Major supports are now placed at its 200-DMA at 1265. The negative takeaway is that the stock is currently way below its 21-day, 50-day, and 100-day moving averages, indicating bearish trend to prevail in near term.

The recent sequence of lower high/low is still intact on the daily and weekly time frames which is on a backdrop of a 'Double Top' pattern on the daily charts. Now below 1265-mark, momentum selling is quite likely.

Preferred Strategy: Simply sell at CMP, and on strength between 1350-1365 zone, targeting 1297/1265 mark and then at 1207 mark. Stop above 1403. Holding Period: 1-3 Months.

From HPMG Research Desk...

The Week That Was ***

August 4th to August 8th 2025.

Nifty fell for the 6th straight week as India got the rough end of Trump’s trade war!

Nifty bulls were seen sobbing amidst Trump’s tariff uncertainty.

Actually, Trump’s higher tariffs unleashed chaos as investors looked to lighten long positions and waited anxiously for clarity to emerge!

Nifty (-0.82%, 24363)

Sensex (-0.92%, 79858)

Bank Nifty (-1.10%, 55005)

In the week gone by, Nifty bears were seen tightening their grip and the attack reminded the main character in The Revenant: A big fearsome bear attacked again and again.

Keeping bearish trade alive were 7-key negative catalysts like:

- 1) Hawkish RBI. (RBI kept Repo rates unchanged at 5.5%, stance also was kept Neutral. The street perceives this as hawkish).
- 2) Deteriorating technical conditions.
- 3) Massive profit booking and long unwinding.
- 4) FII selling: This August, the FIIs have already net sold to the tune of Rs. 14019 crores.
- 5) Uninspiring Q1FY26 by Indian corporates.
- 6) The Indian rupee has extended its fall towards 87.70.
- 7) The US President Donald Trump has doubled tariffs on India from 25% to 50% (Of this 50%, the additional 25% tariffs, however, will kick in from August 27).

Bottom-line: Amidst pessimism at Dalal Street, bulls will hope and pray that Nifty’s 200 DMA at 24043-mark acts as a very good support.

The Week Ahead: It is still all about the tariffs.

Please note: Bear attacks can be terrifying, but they're normal, inevitable and – most importantly – they don't last forever.

Our call of the week suggests to keep a close eye on the Next 3-Big Catalysts from Wall Street:

- 1) The US CPI on Tuesday, August 12th and that will move the needle towards a 25 or 50bp rate cut for September.
- 2) All eyes will be on Fed Governor Christopher Waller who is a leading contender to head the US central bank, bolstering market bets on a September rate cut.

Please note, there are still 3-FOMC meetings to take place this year 2025: September, October and December.

- 3) U.S. retail sales for July 2025 will be announced on August 15.

Moving forward, the next 5-key catalysts which will command investors' attention:

- 1) Investor attention will remain squarely focused on President Trump's trade war and closely monitor international trade developments after U.S. President Donald Trump announced a nearly 50% tariff on Indian imports.
- 2) Also, all eyes will be on corporate India's Q1 earnings season which enters its final leg as concerns rise about a lacklustre earnings season.

Key corporates to announce their Q1 results this week are as follows:

- 3) India's CPI rate for the month of July will be unveiled on August 12. (India's consumer price inflation eased for the eighth straight month, falling to 2.1% in June 2025 — the lowest level since January 2019 — down from 2.82% in May).
- 4) India's WPI inflation figure for July 2025 will be made public on August 14. (India's wholesale prices unexpectedly fell by 0.13% year-on-year in June 2025, reversing from 0.39% growth in May. This marked the first annual decline in wholesale prices since October 2023).
- 5) Passenger vehicle sales data for July 2025 will be released on August 15.
